Directorate or Region	Wider Europe	Department/Country	Kazakhstan
Location of post	Astana	Pay Band	N/A
Reports to	Senior Teacher in Astana /Director Of Studies in Almaty	Duration of job	N/A

Purpose of job (global standard)

- To promote and ensure quality and effective teaching and learning of English
- To support the wider aims of British Council and its cultural relations mission

Context and environment (e.g. dept. description, region description, organogram, country, centre and post challenges)

The British Council wishes to recruit English language teachers to deliver English language training in Astana, to holders of the President of Kazakhstan's Bolashak scholarship scheme, from October 2015.

The training will be delivered intensively to Bolashak Scholars for up to six months, before they go abroad to undertake their main programme of study and/or an additional six months' language training. The training will include a mix of general English and IELTS preparation courses arranged according to the learners' current knowledge.

Bolashak Scholars undertaking the training are likely to have a range of English language abilities (minimum IELTS 4.0), with the requirement to reach IELTS 5.5 by the end of the course. The Scholars will learn in small groups arranged according to ability and will study intensively for 35 hours per week for a period of 3 or 6 months.

The training programme will be managed by the British Council in Almaty, which will provide academic management and administrative support to the teachers. Teachers will need to have a degree of self-management and resilience as they will be teaching in partner premises rather than a standard British Council teaching centre.

There may also be some other teaching opportunities which the British Council, Kazakhstan may be able to offer.

The British Council is an equal opportunities and diversity employer, and the post-holder will play a role in ensuring that Equality, Diversity and Inclusion policies are consistently applied through the operation.

The British Council has a fundamental duty of care of all children engaged in activities with us under our mandatory Child Protection Policy. All our employees must be familiar with and follow the Child Protection Code of Conduct. The British Council affirms the position that all children have the right to be protected from all forms of abuse as set out in article 19, UNCRC 1989.
